BOOST STUDENT KNOWLEDGE ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

WYNN, combined with NewsCurrents One on One, will enable students to comprehend today's complex world issues as well as build literacy and critical thinking skills.

NewsCurrents One on One, an Internet-based non-fiction reading program, provides students with timely news and feature stories in an interactive weekly format. The two programs build literacy, critical thinking, boost test scores and support educational goals.

For grades 5 and up

Each week in NewsCurrents One on One :

- Who am I? feature
- 5-6 news stories
- Faces and Places in the news
- This Week in History
- Comprehension quiz following each story
- Student editorial cartoon
- Location of the week
- Weekly news quiz
- Student comment area
- Web link

“What a terrific concept!
WYNN with timely current events — it will be great for all our students.”

— Bill Schulte,
Collier County Public Schools,
Naples, FL

“I’ve used NewsCurrents One on One for years. It’s great for building background knowledge and literacy skills. Paired with the talking format of WYNN...the materials provide differentiated learning and are accessible to every one of my students.”

— Carole Renca,
Edmunds Middle School,
Burlington, VT
